9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT TACOMA

11 GREGORY ANTONIO WRIGHT,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 CONMED HEALTHCARE
15 MANAGEMENT, INC.,

16 Defendant.

CASE NO. 3:16-CV-05033-BHS-JRC

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE OR AMEND

17 The District Court has referred this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights action to United States
18 Magistrate Judge J. Richard Creatura. The Court's authority for the referral is 28 U.S.C. §
19 636(b)(1)(A) and (B), and Magistrate Judge Rules MJR3 and MJR4.

20 Plaintiff Gregory Antonio Wright proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, filed this 21 civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging inadequate medical treatment while he 22 was incarcerated at Clark County Jail. Having reviewed and screened plaintiff's complaint under 23 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, the Court declines to serve plaintiff's complaint because plaintiff has yet to 24 plead sufficient facts to demonstrate that the only named defendant, Conmed Healthcare, directly participated in plaintiff's treatment or that defendant or the medical staff at Clark County Jail

1 was deliberately indifferent to plaintiff's medical needs. However, the Court provides plaintiff
2 leave to file an amended pleading by February 22, 2016, to cure the deficiencies identified 3 herein.

4 BACKGROUND

5 Plaintiff, who is currently incarcerated at Clark County Jail, alleges that he was denied 6 adequate medical care. Dkt. 5. Plaintiff alleges that on December 12, 2015 he had four to five 7 seizures in his cell. Id. at 5. Plaintiff alleges that the medical staff called code blue, came to his 8 cell and rolled plaintiff on his side. Id. Plaintiff alleges that he was then left in his cell and was 9 not taken to the medical unit. Id. Plaintiff alleges that he saw the doctor the next morning. Id.
10 Plaintiff alleges that he has been trying to switch his seizure medication and that he stopped
11 taking his medication because defendant refused to change it. Id. Plaintiff asserts that he is now
12 on the correct medication. Id. Plaintiff alleges that his right arm is sore and that his head hurts 13 from hitting the floor during his seizures. Id.

14 Plaintiff seeks $8 million in damages, his criminal record expunged, criminal charges 15 dismissed, an investigation into defendant and to be released from the Clark County Jail. Id. at 6.

16 DISCUSSION

17 Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Court is required to screen 18 complaints brought by prisoners seeking relief against a governmental entity or officer or 19 employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The Court must "dismiss the 20 complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint: (1) is frivolous, malicious, or fails to 21 state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or (2) seeks monetary relief from a defendant 22 who is immune from such relief." Id. at (b); 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2); see Barren v. Harrington, 23 152 F.3d 1193 (9th Cir. 1998).

1 In order to state a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must show: (1) he 2 suffered a violation of rights protected by the Constitution or created by federal statute, and (2)
3 the violation was proximately caused by a person acting under color of state law. See Crumpton
4 v. Gates, 947 F.2d 1418, 1420 (9th Cir. 1991). The first step in a § 1983 claim is therefore to 5 identify the specific constitutional right allegedly infringed. Albright v. Oliver, 510 U.S. 266, 271
6 (1994). To satisfy the second prong, a plaintiff must allege facts showing how individually 7 named defendants caused, or personally participated in causing, the harm alleged in the 8 complaint. See Arnold v. IBM, 637 F.2d 1350, 1355 (9th Cir. 1981).

9 Plaintiff's complaint suffers from deficiencies requiring dismissal if not corrected in an 10 amended complaint.

11 A. Adequate Medical Treatment

12 Plaintiff alleges that he was denied proper medical care. Dkt. 5. The government has an 13 obligation to provide medical care for prisoners. The Eighth Amendment proscribes deliberate 14 indifference to a prisoner's serious medical needs. Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 103 (1976).
15 To establish "deliberate indifference," a prisoner must show that a defendant purposefully 16 ignored or failed to respond to the prisoner's pain or possible medical need. Id. at 104. A 17 determination of "deliberate indifference" involves an examination of two elements: (1) the 18 seriousness of the prisoner's medical need; and (2) the nature of the defendant's response to that 19 need. McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059 (9th Cir. 1992).

20 A medical need is serious "if the failure to treat the prisoner's condition could result in 21 further significant injury or the 'unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.'" McGuckin, 974 22 F.2d at 1059 (quoting Estelle, 429 U.S. at 104). "The existence of an injury that a reasonable 23 doctor or patient would find important and worthy of comment or treatment; the presence of a 24

1 medical condition that significantly affects an individual's daily activities; or the existence of 2 chronic and substantial pain are examples of indications that a prisoner has a 'serious' need for 3 medical treatment." McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1059-1060.

4 If a plaintiff shows that he suffered from a serious medical need, he must then show that 5 the prison officials responded to the need with deliberate indifference. Farmer v. Brennan, 511
 6 U.S. 825, 834 (1970). Deliberate indifference to a prisoner's serious medical need requires "a 7 purposeful act or failure to act on the part of the defendant." McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1060. In 8 other words, "[a] defendant must purposefully ignore or fail to respond to a prisoner's pain or 9 possible medical need." Id. A prison official, accordingly, will not be found deliberately 10 indifferent to a prisoner's serious medical needs, "unless the official knows of and disregards an 11 excessive risk to inmate health or safety." See Farmer, 511 U.S. at 837. "[T]he official must both 12 be aware of facts from which the inference could be drawn that a substantial risk of serious harm 13 exists, and he must also draw the inference." Id.

14 Delay of, or interference with, medical treatment can also amount to deliberate 15 indifference. See McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1059; Hutchinson v. United States, 838 F.2d 390, 394 16 (9th Cir. 1988). Where the prisoner is alleging that delay of medical treatment resulted from 17 deliberate indifference, however, the prisoner must show that the delay led to further injury. See 18 McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1060; Shapley v. Nev. Bd. of State Prison Comm'rs, 766 F.2d 404, 407
 19 (9th Cir. 1985) (per curiam).

20 Furthermore, a plaintiff must also allege facts in his § 1983 complaint showing how 21 individually named defendants caused or personally participated in causing the harm alleged in 22 the complaint. Arnold v. IBM, 637 F.2d 1350, 1355 (9th Cir. 1981). A defendant cannot be held 23 liable under § 1983 solely on the basis of supervisory responsibility or position. Monell v.
 24

1 Department of Social Servs., of City of New York, 436 U.S. 658, 691–94 (1978). Plaintiff can 2 prove causation under § 1983 only if plaintiff demonstrates that a defendant did an affirmative 3 act, participated in another's affirmative act, or omitted to perform an act which he was legally 4 required to do that caused the deprivation complained of. Arnold, 637 F.2d at 1355 (quoting 5 Johnson v. Duffy, 588 F.2d 740, 743–44 (9th Cir. 1978)).

6 Plaintiff identifies Conmed Healthcare as the sole defendant in this action. Dkt. 5.
 7 Plaintiff alleges that defendant employs the medical staff at Clark County Jail. Dkt. 5 at 5.
 8 Defendant Conmed may be considered a state actor based on its contract with the Clark County 9 Jail. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42 (1988) (private physician who contracted with state on part-10 time basis to provide medical care at prison hospital was a state actor); but see Blum v. Yaretsky, 11 457 U.S. 991 (1982) (state regulation insufficient to transform private parties exercising medical 12 judgments according to professional standards not established by state into state actors).
 13 However, plaintiff has failed to allege any facts showing how defendant is liable aside from its 14 role as an employer. Because vicarious liability is inapplicable in a § 1983 suit and defendant 15 cannot be held liable simply because it employs or supervises medical staff, see Monell, 436 U.S.
 16 at 691–694 plaintiff has not alleged that defendant took any affirmative action or failed to act, 17 causing the alleged inadequate medical treatment. Arnold, 637 F.2d at 1355 (quoting Johnson v.
 18 Duffy, 588 F.2d 740, 743–44 (9th Cir. 1978)). Thus, plaintiff has not set forth any facts 19 demonstrating that the named defendant personally participated in causing any harm. See 20 Arnold, 637 F.2d at 1355. Plaintiff must name individuals who were involved in his treatment 21 and medical decisions and allege facts showing a causal connection between the individual's 22 action and the harm allegedly suffered by plaintiff. Aldabe v. Aldabe, 616 F.2d 1089, 1092 (9th 23 Cir. 1980).

1 Moreover, plaintiff's complaint does not include any allegations that defendant or the 2 medical staff at Clark County Jail was deliberately indifferent to his medical needs. It appears 3 that the crux of plaintiff's complaint is that defendant's treatment of his seizures was not 4 adequate and as a result, defendant violated his Eighth Amendment rights. However, the 5 allegations in plaintiff's complaint show that medical staff responded to plaintiff's seizures with 6 a code blue and placed plaintiff on his side and that plaintiff was seen by a medical doctor the 7 day after his seizures. Dkt. 5 at 5. See Farmer, 511 U.S. at 837; See Shapley, 766 F.2d at 407
8 (delay must cause substantial harm); Cf. Hunt v. Dental Department, 865 F.2d 198, 199 (9th 9 Cir.1989) (three month delay in replacing dentures, causing gum disease and possibly weight 10 loss constituted eighth amendment violation). A difference of opinion between a prisoner and 11 medical authorities regarding proper medical treatment does not give rise to a § 1983 claim.
12 Franklin v. Oregon, State Welfare Div., 662 F.2d 1337, 1344 (9th Cir.1981). Furthermore, the 13 grievance attached to plaintiff's complaint shows that a doctor prescribed plaintiff with 14 medication for his seizures but that plaintiff refused to take his medication 50% of the time. Dkt.
15 5 at 4. Thus, plaintiff has not alleged any facts which demonstrate that defendant or the Clark 16 County Jail medical staff was deliberately indifferent to his health or safety.

17 Accordingly, the Court finds that plaintiff has failed to state a claim under the Eighth 18 Amendment. If plaintiff wishes to pursue this § 1983 action, he must provide an amended 19 complaint with a short, plain statement explaining exactly what actions were taken by any 20 individual defendant, how defendant's actions violated plaintiff's constitutional rights, what 21 harm he suffered as a result, and whether defendant had knowledge of plaintiff's harm or risk of 22 harm.

1 B. Instruction to Plaintiff and the Clerk

2 Due to the deficiencies described above, the Court will not serve plaintiff's complaint. If 3 plaintiff intends to pursue a § 1983 civil rights action in this Court, he must file an amended 4 complaint and within the amended complaint, he must write a short, plain statement telling the 5 Court: (1) the constitutional right plaintiff believes was violated; (2) the name of the person who 6 violated the right; (3) exactly what the individual did or failed to do; (4) how the action or 7 inaction of the individual is connected to the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights; and (5) 8 what specific injury plaintiff suffered because of the individual's conduct. See Rizzo v. Goode, 9 423 U.S. 362, 371–72, 377 (1976).

10 Plaintiff shall present the amended complaint on the form provided by the Court. The 11 amended complaint must be legibly rewritten or retyped in its entirety, it should be an original 12 and not a copy, it should contain the same case number, and it may not incorporate any part of 13 the original complaint by reference. The amended complaint will act as a complete substitute for 14 the original complaint, and not as a supplement. An amended complaint supersedes the original 15 complaint. Forsyth v. Humana, Inc., 114 F.3d 1467, 1474 (9th Cir. 1997) overruled in part on 16 other grounds, Lacey v. Maricopa County, 693 F.3d 896 (9th Cir. 2012). Therefore, the amended 17 complaint must be complete in itself and all facts and causes of action alleged in the original 18 complaint that are not alleged in the amended complaint are waived. Forsyth, 114 F.3d at 1474.
19 The Court will screen the amended complaint to determine whether it contains factual allegations 20 linking each defendant to the alleged violations of plaintiff's rights. The Court will not authorize 21 service of the amended complaint on any defendant who is not specifically linked to a violation 22 of plaintiff's rights.

If plaintiff fails to file an amended complaint or fails to adequately address the issues raised herein on or before February 22, 2016 the undersigned will recommend dismissal of this action as frivolous pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

The Clerk is directed to send plaintiff the appropriate forms for filing a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights complaint and for service. The Clerk is further directed to send copies of this order and Pro Se Instruction Sheet to plaintiff.

Dated this 21st day of January, 2016.
